MsLadyGrim

"As always, this event is for those who put money into the game, and as always, few tokens. That's why it's for the rikis (rich), the most powerful," said Gabo mex [#94 HLTH] in the poll that Luxury Time conducted publicly in the World chat.

Another user, Allyci [#92 WINS], said "few if you don't have money," while others said "I simply have no expectations," as expressed by TitanxTribe [#96 VNES] a few days before the official launch of the fourth season.

"Snow blindness, turning the screen brightness down to minimum... and basically the same as in S3 (Season 3)," expressed Rabbid sausage [#93 YES].
